A(Rt) Message in A (Chianti Classico) Bottle

"Casa in bottiglia" by French artist Clet Abraham arrived at Vallepicciola by means of the "A(rt) message in a (Chianti Classico) bottle" project, promoted by the Consorzio del Chianti Classico, and celebrates not just wine, but also Chianti Classico, which has long inspired poets and artists. The bottle-sculpture made of polystyrene and standing 4 meters tall is a street art reinterpretation of the iconic bottle that has always defined Chianti Classico, featuring a whimsical house with a door, window, and a smoke cloud from the chimney, representing a unique visit for art lovers.

The synergy between wine and art at Vallepicciola reflects the richness of Chianti Classico's culture and heritage. Visitors are invited to immerse themselves in a landscape where tradition meets modernity, where the vines whisper stories of the past and the wines offer a taste of the region's soul. The experiences offered at
