Le Fontanelle Hotel

Nestled in the picturesque landscapes of Castelnuovo Berardenga, Siena, Hotel Le Fontanelle and The Club House embody the quintessence of Tuscan charm under the stewardship of the Bolfo family. These luxurious retreats, together with the Vallepicciola winery, form the Fontanelle Estate brand, offering a harmonious blend of history, elegance, and modern comfort. General Manager Phoebe Farolfi reflects this ethos, stating, "Family is at the heart of our warm atmosphere, and we want guests and staff to feel at home. Our strong Tuscan family values inspire us to forge memorable connections that go beyond mere hospitality."

Described as "a silent house on the hillside" by the Bolfo family, Hotel Le Fontanelle opened its doors in 2006. This 13th-century Tuscan-style farmhouse has been meticulously restored, preserving its historical essence while offering modern amenities. The hotel features rooms and suites that reflect the understated elegance of rustic Tuscan residences, adorned with terracotta floors, beamed ceilings, and soft floral fabrics. Each room, from the classic to the deluxe and junior suites, provides a unique and intimate retreat, echoing the colors and textures of the Chianti hills.

The common areas are thoughtfully designed, offering reading nooks and game areas that foster relaxation and connection. The Health Club wellness area, with its heated indoor pool and expansive windows overlooking the vineyards, invites guests to rejuvenate in a serene setting. Outside, the panoramic pool amidst the greenery offers a tranquil escape.

Dining at Hotel Le Fontanelle is an experience in itself. La Colonna restaurant, with its elegant and minimalist ambiance, features large windows that frame the spectacular landscape. During summer, the Terrazza Belvedere offers a magical setting for dining under the stars. Chef Francesco Ferrettini, with his deep-rooted Tuscan heritage, leads the culinary team, blending tradition with innovation to create dishes that surprise with contemporary twists on classic Italian cuisine.

The Club House, Modern Luxury in a Historical Setting

The Club House, a five-star adults-only hotel inaugurated in spring 2022, is a testament to the Bolfo family's dedication to preserving and enhancing the region's heritage. The transformation of the 18th-century farmhouse into a luxurious retreat was overseen by architect Margherita Gozzi, ensuring a seamless blend of history and modernity. The hotel's 15 rooms and suites, each uniquely designed, offer a sophisticated retreat with breathtaking views of the Chianti hills.

The Club House's dining options further enhance the guest experience. Il Visibilio, the Michelin-starred fine dining restaurant led by Executive Chef Daniele Canella, offers a blind tasting menu that evolves with the seasons, focusing on high-quality, fresh ingredients. Osteria Il Tuscanico, also led by Canella, provides a varied menu with traditional Tuscan and Italian dishes, as well as vegan options, in an elegant yet informal setting reminiscent of traditional Tuscan trattorias.

The Wellness Sanctuary, the hotel's holistic spa, integrates beauty, territory, food, and wine in a program designed to revitalize mind and body. The space, filled with natural light and exclusive areas, enhances the perception of well-being, creating a haven of tranquility. Head Pastry Chef Alessandro Attanasi adds a sweet touch to the dining experience with his exquisite creations, further enriching the sensory journey for guests.

Vallepicciola, A Winery of Excellence

Completing the Fontanelle Estate experience is the Vallepicciola winery, established in 1999. Spanning 107 hectares of vineyards, the winery prides itself on its rich biodiversity and sustainable farming practices. Located in the Pievasciata area of Chianti Classico, the winery covers nearly 265 hectares of hills, woodlands, and vineyards. The winery's architecture, designed to blend harmoniously with the surrounding environment, exemplifies the Bolfo family's commitment to preserving the natural beauty of Tuscany.

Hotel Le Fontanelle and The Club House offer more than just luxurious accommodations; they provide an immersive experience deeply rooted in Tuscan culture and family values. The Bolfo family's dedication to creating spaces where history and modernity coexist harmoniously ensures that every guest leaves with cherished memories of Tuscany's timeless elegance. Whether savoring a glass of wine on a private terrace, dining under the stars, or rejuvenating in a serene spa, guests are invited to fully embrace the beauty and charm of this enchanting region.
