Château de Saran: A Champagne Holiday to Remember

Château de Saran, a historic residence owned by Moët & Chandon since 1801, is hosting a grand holiday celebration this year, bringing together friends of the Maison. Nestled in the heart of the Champagne region, this iconic estate offers breathtaking views of the rolling hills of Chouilly and the Côte des Blancs. Recently restored, the Château combines its rich heritage with modern elegance, creating an ideal setting for unforgettable experiences. The venue reflects the legacy of Moët & Chandon, offering guests a glimpse into over two centuries of Champagne-making tradition.

The celebration promises to deliver memorable moments, from tours of the gardens to intimate conversations in the Château's refined salons. Guests will also enjoy unique dining experiences, with expertly paired champagnes and gourmet dishes prepared by the Château's chefs. These details invite Moët & Chandon's guests to create lasting memories that blend the rich past of the estate with the festive spirit of the present.

Roger Federer, a long-time ambassador for Moët & Chandon, was the host of the evening's festivities. Federer, alongside other celebrities such as Uma Thurman, Natalie Portman, Coco Rocha, and Lashana Lynch, embraced the elegance of French "art de vivre" in a night filled with charm and glamour. Their presence highlighted the shared values of sophistication, generosity, and success that Moët & Chandon embodies.

For those looking to elevate their own celebrations, Moët & Chandon offers guidance on creating magical holiday moments. From selecting the perfect champagne for each occasion, such as the classic Moët & Chandon Impérial or the bold Moët Ice Impérial, to setting the ideal table with elegant décor and glassware, the Maison reveals its secrets for hosting with style. For an even more exclusive experience, the Moët & Chandon Collection Impériale Création No. 1, a blend of seven exceptional vintages, represents the pinnacle of the Maison's expertise.

Additionally, Moët & Chandon underscores the importance of pairing fine champagne with exquisite dishes. Chef Yannik Alléno, the Maison's culinary ambassador, emphasizes that the right combination of flavors can enhance any meal. From light hors d'oeuvres to more refined main courses, the champagnes of Moët & Chandon bring out the best in every dish, making each moment of the holiday season a true celebration.

The Château de Saran, with its historical significance and modern allure, stands as the perfect backdrop for Moët & Chandon's iconic celebrations, offering guests the ultimate Champagne experience this holiday season.
