vinetur

Castilla y Leon Wines Roadshow returns to East Coast in 2025

Chicago, Washington D.C., and Miami to host exclusive tastings and masterclasses showcasing spain's largest wine-producing region.

Monday, March 17, 2025

The Castilla y León Wines Roadshow from Spain is set to return to the East Coast in 2025, following a successful series of events in 2024. This event, organized by the Institute for Business Competitiveness of Castilla y León (ICECYL) and Food and Wines from Castilla y León, will highlight the region's finest wines and unique terroirs. The roadshow will take place in Chicago, Washington D.C., and Miami, offering exclusive wine tastings and masterclasses.

In Chicago, the event is scheduled for March 31, with a masterclass led by Christian Shaum from 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM, followed by a walkaround tasting from 12:30 PM to 4:30 PM. Washington D.C. will host the event on April 2, featuring a masterclass by Emily Nevin from 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM, and a tasting session from 12:30 PM to 4:30 PM. Miami's event is set for April 4, with Allegra Angelo leading a masterclass from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM, and a tasting from 11:30 AM to 3:30 PM.

These events will provide an immersive experience, showcasing the diverse landscapes and climates that contribute to Castilla y León's exceptional wines. As Spain's largest wine-producing region, Castilla y León covers over 80,000 hectares of vineyards, representing 6% of Spain's total wine production. The region is home to more than 600 wineries and features 10 Denominations of Origin (DOs) and 4 Protected Geographical Indications (PGIs), each with unique characteristics. Featured DOs include Ribera del Duero, Toro, Bierzo, Rueda, and Vino de la Tierra de Castilla y León.

The roadshow is designed for importers, distributors, retailers, sommeliers, and wine media professionals. It offers curated tastings, expert-led masterclasses, and networking opportunities. Participants will gain insights from leading wine professionals and learn about Castilla y León's dedication to quality winemaking.

Spaces for the event are limited, and interested parties are encouraged to secure their spots. For more information and registration, visit the links for Chicago, Washington D.C., and Miami, or contact Gemma Bosch at gbosch@colangelopr.com.

The Institute for Business Competitiveness of Castilla y León (ICECYL) is a government agency focused on economic growth and internationalization of local companies. ICECYL supports businesses in expanding globally, promoting innovation, and accessing new markets. It offers resources and support for export assistance and business development, enhancing the global presence of Castilla y León's industries, including its renowned food and wine sectors.