vinetur

Rare Château Lafite Rothschild vintages offered for sale by SoDivin attract global collectors

Selection spans 1931 to 2009 with both first and second labels available, highlighting Bordeaux’s enduring appeal and investment value

Tuesday, June 24, 2025

A rare selection of Château Lafite Rothschild wines, spanning vintages from 1931 to 2009, is now available for collectors and wine enthusiasts through the French fine wine specialist SoDivin. The offering includes both the prestigious first label, Château Lafite Rothschild, and its second label, Carruades de Lafite. The bottles are stored in France and can be shipped the same day with next-day delivery options to various destinations.

The list features a range of vintages, with prices reflecting the rarity and reputation of each year. For example, a single bottle of Château Lafite Rothschild from 1931 is listed at €1,570.83 (excluding VAT), while a magnum from 1954 is offered at €2,995.83. More recent vintages, such as the 1999 magnum, are priced at €1,550.00. The selection also includes several bottles from the 1980s and 1990s, with prices generally ranging from €525.00 to €1,990.00 per bottle depending on the year and format.

Carruades de Lafite, the estate's second label, is also well represented in this collection. Bottles from the late 1980s through the 2000s are available in varying quantities. For instance, there are 30 bottles of the 1994 vintage priced at €208.33 each and several bottles from other years such as 1995, 1996, and 1999 with prices between €223.33 and €287.50 per bottle. The oldest Carruades de Lafite in this offering is a single bottle from 1950 listed at €450.00.

SoDivin has specialized in fine and old vintages since its founding in 2001. The company uses high-performance packaging to ensure safe delivery of these valuable wines to buyers around the world. All prices are listed ex-cellar and exclude VAT.

Château Lafite Rothschild is one of Bordeaux's most celebrated estates and holds the status of Premier Cru Classé (First Growth) under the Bordeaux Wine Official Classification of 1855. Its wines are known for their longevity and have long been sought after by collectors globally.

This current offering provides an opportunity for buyers to acquire bottles from some of the most notable vintages in Bordeaux history, including years that are rarely seen on the market today. The availability of both standard bottles and magnums adds further appeal for those looking to expand or complete their collections.

The sale comes at a time when interest in fine wine investment remains strong worldwide, with mature Bordeaux continuing to command high prices at auction and through private sales. SoDivin's direct-to-consumer model allows buyers to access these rare bottles with expedited shipping options.

Collectors interested in purchasing from this selection can view detailed listings and photographs on SoDivin’s website or contact the company directly for more information about shipping destinations and payment options.