likely to buy a woman a drink, but she'll probably walk away from you mid-sentence.
Wine
In your group of friends you're the classy one -- or so you'd like to think. You've memorized a few types of wine, so now you're an expert -- on everything.
Red Wine
You like the way red wine makes you feel, and you're OK with sharing that when you're out. It's the highlight of your evening, especially since your life is as exciting as a stay at home mom's.
Jello Shots
You love them because you've made them on your own and you know there's a trick to it. Plus, all you need is three or four before you feel like you can really have a good time.
Rum with coke
You're a person with simple tastes, and you like your drink to be familiar. Either that, or you like masking the taste of alcohol.
Whiskey (On the Rocks)
You're tough -- at least you come off that way when people ask you what you're drinking.
Margarita
You like to have a good time, and you're not ashamed to make that obvious. The most pressing decision you have to make is: Original or strawberry?
Martini
James Bond had a big impact on you as a kid, and you've tried to become him as much as possible. Trouble is, it's not working.
Malt Liquor
You're a pro at getting drunk fast, and you learned long ago you don't need to spend big bucks on it.
